May 1957

Dear Mom and Dad,
Just a few lines to let you know how I'm getting along here at the academy. So much has been happening lately that I don't know where to start. Last Sunday night we practiced the graduation exercises for the first time and with all the other class activities
I can assure you that we are busy all the time.
Commencement is almost here
and as I think back on the past four years I realize that if it were not for your help, encouragement, and understanding I would not have had the joy
of attending a Christian school.
Thank you so much. I love you both more than you'll ever know.

Your graduate,

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

Indiana Conference

of Seventh-day Adventists

PHONE CLIFFORD 1-9292

1405 BROAD RIPPLE AVENUE

INDIANAPOLIS 20, INDIANA

May, 1957

Dear Graduates:

Never in the history of time was there such a need for men and women with a vision. Part of the message given the Laodicean church was to "anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see." We need to see the needs of humanity and the opportunities for service.

God could do, and will do great things through you graduates if you will yield your lives in service. There is no greater joy in life than to serve. The avenues of service are multiplied and beckoning. Will you respond?

No matter where you find yourself in the future--in college, in teaching, in literature ministry, in the home--you can be a great blessing and inspiration. The student literature evangelists who have worked in our field have done nobly well, and we feel any of you who wish to serve in this capacity can earn a scholarship for your next year's college training.

Let me commend you on your achievements and wish you success in your future plans. Indiana Academy is proud of you.

Affectionately yours,

Arthur Kiesz, President

Distinguished Background
for the world's outstanding spinet piano

Only the makers of the incomparable Baldwin Grand could produce such a piano as the Acrosonic. The uncompromising standards of piano excellence that have been an integral part of the tradition of the Baldwin Grand Piano constitute a distinguished background for the creation and development of the exquisite Acrosonic by Baldwin.
